Verna Bond says: Rovers did a great job on donations for October. Food totaled 157 lbs and Martha's Cupboard's total was 17 lbs. The yearly total is 1866 lbs. WOW! Rovers are great!!

ATTENTION THOSE WHO HAVE TRIED TO GET ON THE ROVERS PRIVATE FACEBOOK PAGE AND WERE NOT SUCCESSFUL, YET EDITOR HAS MADE A SETTINGS CHANGE THAT MAKES IT WORK NOW. IF YOU WANT ME TO SEND YOU A INVITE TO IT, EMAIL ME AT shepatfleming@gmail.com.

DUES FOR 2025—START DATE 11/1/25; DUE DATE 12/31/25

The deadline to pay dues for 2026 is 12/31/25. No leeway for dues received after that date in the mail (new Operating Procedure). The dues are $40/yr and for those of you who get your newsletter mailed to you, the additional cost will be $35/yr. You may now start sending in checks made payable to RAMBLING ROVERS (phone # please) or cash to the office at Rambling Rovers, 660 Suite R, George Washington Way, Richland, WA 99352 OR bring it to a meeting. At General Meetings, Karen Crawford, our Membership Specialist, sits closest to the door and will accept your dues payments every general meeting through 12/17/25. The last day we will accept dues during office hours will be Monday, 12/29. We will check the mail box on the 12/31 and also any envelopes slid under our office door by 2pm on 12/31.

If your dues are not received by these dates, you will be terminated as a member. If you pay late, you will have your check returned and you will have to reapply for membership.

We look forward to another great year of fun, friendships and traveling.

If you haven't traveled this year and received an email asking why and suggesting maybe you should reconsider renewing if you weren't going to travel, please know this, we DO want you to renew. We value you. That email was not Board sanctioned. We appreciate your being a member and know that one of these days we will have just the right trip for you.

The Board approved some changes to the Operating Procedures as follows:

Regarding dues, the deadline for paying them is now the last day of December.

Trip Coordinators will present the trip with cost or estimated cost to the Board for approval and provide said description to the newsletter editor.

If a trip does not fill, trip coordinator may recruit traveler(s) from list of people waiting to join the Association. Trips then may be offered to guests of members. [this was reversed in priority in last OP's] Trip coordinator can determine most efficient way to let travelers know number of openings available for guests.

The Health Advisement on page 2 has been deleted. Also deleted is the paragraph about the Member Connections Coordinator requesting the treasurer to send a $20 donation to a charity specified by a deceased member's family.

A complete copy of the Operating Procedures is now on the Rover website (ramblingroverstravel.net) and at the Rover Office.

Our Rover member Bill Bell is getting married on Thanksgiving Day to Patti Lingle. They met at church. When you see them, wish them both many happy days together!

THE INSIDE SCOOP ON PLANNING A TRIP FOR THE ROVERS

Linda M. doesn't know I'm putting this in the newsletter but notice in the below itinerary for the recent Seattle trip, that every stop—whether it be for a rest stops or meals — has to be planned down to the minute because we are paying for the bus for a certain amount of time. I know our new trip coordinator, LP, appreciates Linda M's suggestions and guidance and has also received some great trip suggestions from members at the meetings, she's definitely on her way. So here is Linda M's email to those of us on this most recent trip to Seattle —do you think you can plan two of your own vacation days down to the minute like this?

[LINDA] I'll attach the itinerary here for your review. There will also be a printed copy in your treat bags along with other information about things to see and do while on the waterfront.

Bring a rain jacket or umbrella.... we're going to SEATTLE you know! Right now, the forecast looks pretty good, but we all know it can change on a dime!

Here is a link if you might be interested in a one-hour tour of Elliott Bay while you're there.

As it turned out, the Rovers on this trip were so great at getting on the bus before the itinerary time, that we were ahead of schedule getting home. Maybe the lack of oohing and aahing at the Falls which were fogged in might have contributed some of the saved time.

It was a grand trip thanks to incredible planning. See next page for more.

Inside the snack bags were a list of fellow travelers on the bus (quite a few new members and kudos to the rest for making them feel welcome), a schematic of the hotel and where restaurants were located were located, the itinerary, 2 game sheets and a map of the Seattle waterfront.

After we got to our rooms and settled in, we hear from Jim & Linda who provided a happy hour in their suite which they personally paid extra for that had sofas and chairs and many member visitors.

Jim's trip trivia is always so interesting and he an extra few tidbits about their personal trip to the Great Lakes. Linda had an equally interesting story about working at Darigold. On the bus as we were passing that plant near Sunnyside, she commented that she worked there 20 years. She said, "I cut the cheese." [Bus laughter]. "I did!" She said they cut it into large pieces and it was wrapped and sent to Wisconsin — the cheese state! Wisconsin would cut it up and repackage with "distributed by Wisconsin" written on it and sent it out — even to our own area where it came from!
